Any registered voter can Vote by Mail. No reason is necessary to apply.

6. Can someone help me complete the application and ballot materials?

Yes, you can have someone help you. This person is called an "Assistor" and must complete the "Assistor" section of the application or ballot. You, the voter, must sign the application and ballot.

Only active duty military and voters residing overseas may apply by fax or e-mail. All other voters must apply in writing with an original signature.

8. If it is within seven days before the election, and I am not able to apply in person to the County Clerk, can someone else get my ballot?

Your messenger must be a family member or a registered voter in this county and cannot be a candidate on the ballot.
