2022 Primary Election Ballot Drawing Date Changed to Thursday, April 14

Newly signed legislation moves date from April 15 to April 14

FREEHOLD, NJ – Monmouth County Clerk Christine Giordano Hanlon is announcing that in accordance with recently passed legislation, S1886/A3587, the ballot drawing for the 2022 Primary Election will be held Thursday, April 14, rather than April 15. This is 54 days before Primary Election Day.

The Primary Election Ballot Drawing will be held in person at 3 p.m. at the Monmouth County Clerk of Elections Office located at 300 Halls Mill Road in Freehold. Members of the public are welcome to attend.

Any questions regarding the ballot drawing can be directed to the County Clerk's Elections Division at 732-431-7790.
